The train started moving. It was full of people of all ages , mostly working men and women and young college students. Near the window sat an old man with his 30-year-old son. As the train went, the son was excited by the sight outside. "See, dad, the sight of green trees moving away is very beautiful."

This behavior(行为)from the 30-year-old son made the others on the train feel strange about him. Everyone started saying something about this son quietly.

"This guy seems to be a crack(古怪的人)", newly married Anup said to his wife.

Suddenly it started raining. Raindrops fell on the travelers through the open window. The 30-year-old son, filled with happiness, said, "See, dad, how beautiful the rain is!

Anup's wife became angry with the raindrops, because they were dropping on her new suit and leaving marks on it.

"Anup, can't you see it's raining? You, Old man, if your son is not feeling well, get him to a mental(精神的)hospital soon and don't influence others."

The old man hesitated(犹豫)first and then in a low voice replied, "We are on the way back from hospital. My son was blind at birth. Only last week he was able to see again. Rain and nature are new to his eyes. Please excuse us for the unhappy things caused."

Many years ago there were airships in the skies. Airships were large balloons(气球), They were full of gas(气体)to keep them in the air, but the gas was dangerous and burned quickly.

One huge airship was called the Hindenburg. This was a German(德国的) airship. It was 245 meters long and it carried more than 100 people. It could move through the sky at 120 kilometers an hour. Its trip across the Atlantic Ocean took a week. The Hindenburg had 16 bags of gas inside it. When the airship was on the ground these bags were empty. When the pilot of the airship wanted to leave the ground, he filled the bags with gas.

For 4 months in 1935 the Hindenburg flew every week between Germany and America. Most of the passengers were rich people. They liked the Hindenburg because although the trip cost a lot of money, it was very comfortable. On 6 May 1935 when the Hindenburg was landing in America, it caught fire(火)and crashed(爻).The people on the ground could do nothing to help the passengers in the airship. 34 people died. 97 people jumped to the ground alive.

For many years after the Hindenburg crash, everyone stopped using airships. They thought they were too dangerous. Now, however, there are new gases that do not burn quickly. There will soon be many airships in the skies again because they are much cleaner and quieter than planes.

48. What do we know about the Hindenburg?

- A. It was an American airship. B. It traveled 245 kilometers an hour.
C. There were only 16 seats in it. D. When it left the ground, the gas bags were full.

C. they thought it was safer than planes D. it was the only airship in the world at that time

50. The Hindenburg crashed because _____ .

- A. the pilot made a mistake B. there were too many passengers in it
C. the bags were filled with dangerous gas D. the airship was flying too near the ground

51. The writer thinks in the future _____ .

- A. airships will be popular
B. people will use airships instead of planes
C. it will be impossible to find gases for airships that do not burn quickly
D. people will stop using airships because planes will be much cleaner and quieter

If you ask someone the reasons to wear clothes , the answer will probably be " To keep warm and to cover my body". These are the basic(基本的)reasons we wear clothes, but people also want to look attractive (好看的)and appear successful to others.

If people only wear clothes for warmth and to cover their bodies , most clothing would be simple and cheap. In many countries, However, clothing is sometimes very expensive. The main reason for this is not the cost of the cloth or the cost of making the clothes. The clothes are expensive because of fashion.

Successful businessmen , for example , often wear very expensive suits , shirts and ties. Some times they pay thousands of dollars for a suit and hundreds of dollars for a tie. It's still just a suit and tie but they pay these prices because of the famous name of the designer. A suit costing much less would be just as warm and would cover the wearer's body just as well.

Fashion is changing all the time , which means that people who want to be in fashion have to buy new clothes every few months , even if last month's clothes have only been worn once or twice. Some people have closets(壁橱)full of clothes that have hardly been worn but are no longer in fashion. So, being in fashion can be very expensive.

52. The first passage tells us _____ .

- A. how people choose clothes B. why people wear clothes
C. what clothes people often wear D. who often wear expensive clothes

53. According to the passage, some successful businessmen pay very high prices for a suit and tie mainly because _____ .

- A. the cloth is fine B. they are well made
C. the designer is famous D. the businessmen want to wear them for long

54. What does the underlined sentence "A suit costing much less would be just as warm" mean?

- A. A much cheaper suit would be just as warm as a very expensive one.
B. A very expensive suit is much warmer than a cheaper one.
C. A tie would cost much less than a warm suit.
D. A much cheaper suit would be just used for keeping warm.

55. What's the best title (标题) of the passage?

- A. Fashion. B. Fashion is changing all the time.
C. The basic reasons to wear clothes. D. It's not necessary to be in fashion.

Here are my comments about our school newspaper.

Every time I get the newspaper, I will look through the English Column(栏目)first. By reading the School News I know more about our school events. The Culture & Sports opens up my eyes to the outside world. Some students say the Advice Column is really a great help for them, but I don't agree. I never ask it for help whenever I am in trouble. And I hardly ever read the column of the Ways of Learning. It is not so useful as I expect.

I don't like the pictures in the newspaper. They are not clear enough. I hope they will improve them.

A Survey of the English Column

Do you like our school newspaper? What do you think of the English Column? Please help us by finishing the following form. If you agree with the statements, write A. If you disagree, write D. We also hope to get your advice.

- . You like the School News. 74 _____
- . You find the Advice Column helpful. 75 _____
- . The Ways of Learning is useful for you. 76 _____
- . The Culture & Sports helps you a lot. 77 _____
- . What we need to improve: 78 _____

七、书面表达

79. A beautiful place to go!

(参考形容词: nice /good /wonderful/ great / fantastic/interesting/ fun.)

meters high (tall). You can get to the mountain by bus. Welcome to Mount Feng!

80. We have different ideas about how to make Mount Feng a travel spotlight. My classmate Liu Ying thinks it's a good way to plant fruit trees on the mountain, where the visitors can pick fruits by themselves and eat them for free. Li Ping comes up with the idea that an amusement park can be built there to make the visitors relaxed and enjoyable. Besides, it helps keep them strong and healthy.

In my view, building a lake will make it touristy. The visitors can not only enjoy the clean water in the lake , but also go swimming, fishing and boating in it. (85 words)
