One Possible Version:

I'm a junior high school student from Jiangxi. In my spare time, I like shopping. There is a supermarket in my town. Lots of things are being sold there. So I often go there with my mother to buy school things, food and drinks.

Of course, sometimes I want to buy something expensive. An MP4 player is what I want most, but I can't afford it now. I'm going to work for an English club during this summer holiday and make some money for it. We teenagers should not always ask our parents for money.

As for shopping online, I like it, because things there are much cheaper and I don't need to walk to the shops, which helps me save time. No matter where to shop, I enjoy it because it's really relaxing.
