The Internet has become part of teenage(青少年) life. There’s a report on 3, 375 students aged from 10 to 18 in seven Chinese cities. It says that 38% of them believe they use the Internet often. While most of them get useful information and use the Internet to help in their studies, some are not using “it” in a good way. Many are playing online games too much. A few even visit web sites they should not look at. Bad things can happen if young people spend too much time on the Internet.

In order to help young people use the Internet in a good way, a textbook on good Internet behavior has started to be used in some Shanghai middle schools this term. It uses real examples to teach students all about good ways of using the Internet. It gives useful advice such as it’s good to read news or find helpful information to study. Some students also make online friends. But if you are meeting a friend offline, let your parents know.

Teachers and parents all think the book is a very good idea. It will teach students how to be a good person in the online world. It will be a guide for teens using the Internet and keep students away from bad sites.

Today there are almost 7,000 kinds of paper. Paper is very useful. It is made from trees, rice, cotton and other plants.

The Chinese scientist, Cai Lun, invented the paper in the second century. He was a great inventor. At that time people put the outside covering of a tree and old pieces of cloth into water, and a few days later they took them out. Then they made these and other things into pieces of paper.

The Chinese kept their secret of how to make paper for a long time. In the ninth century there was a war between China and foreign countries. Soon after that the foreign countries knew the art of making paper. (停顿 15 秒)

Dear Miss Wang,

Teachers' Day is coming. I want to say "Thank you" for your teaching.

You always work hard. You are very kind and also strict with us. You try to make your classes lively and interesting. You tell us funny stories, teach us English songs, and play games with us. We have English parties together. We are all interested in English. All of us work hard at English and have made great progress. We all love you. Thank you for making English fun.

Happy Teachers' Day!
