Sharing means using what we have with others. One small action of sharing may change someone's world. When we were children, we were too young to understand the true meaning of sharing. We thought only the rich were able to share. As time goes by, we get to know every person is unique. We all have something special. We can share not only our pocket money but also our personal feeling. For instance, we can share our positive attitude with those who are negative or upset. Encourage them to keep going by describing a bright future for them. Let them know we are with them and that the world is still wonderful. Once we decide to share with others, we should take action immediately. By doing this, we will get more and more pleasure.

答案：

Dear Wang Xin ,

How are you doing ? I'm very happy to hear from you . Now I tell you something about my new school. My new school is very big and beautiful. There is a big play ground and a library. We often play sports in the playground and read books in the library. The teachers and students here are very kind and friendly. It's easy to get on well with them. I like my new school.

I know that you will come to Hangzhou by yourself. Be careful when you are on the train. Before arriving , tell me your train number and when you will arrive, I will meet you at the station. Hope you have a good trip!

Best wishes!

Yours ,
Zhang Peng
