Many children use the Internet to get useful knowledge and information, and to relax in their free time. But some of them are not using it in a good way. Here are some rules to make sure you are safe and have fun on the Internet.

Make rules for Internet use with your parents. For example, when you can go online, for how long and what activities you can go online.

Don't give your password(密码) to anyone else, and never give out the following information—your real name, home address, age, school, phone number or other personal information.

Check with your parents before giving out a credit card(信用卡) number.

Never send a photo of yourself to someone by e-mail unless your parents say it's OK.

Check with your parents before going into a chat room. Different chat rooms have different rules and attract different kinds of people. You and your parents ought to make sure it's a right place for you.

Never agree to meet someone you met on the Internet without your parents' permission(允许). Never meet anyone you met online alone.

Always remember that people online may not be who they say they are. Treat everyone online as strangers.

If something you see or read online makes you uncomfortable, leave the site. Tell a parent or teacher right away.

Treat other people as you'd like to be treated. Never use bad language.

Remember — not everything you read on the Internet is true.

71. It's good for children to _____ on the Internet.
- A. give password to others B. get useful knowledge and information
C. give out a credit card number
72. The writer tells children to _____.

第四部分:

One possible version:

Dear students,

As we know, safety is the most important thing in our lives. So, we should try our best to make sure we are safe. We mustn't bring restricted knives or things to our school because these things may cause serious problems. Do not have a bath in rivers or ponds by ourselves without our parents permission. And, we should be friendly to others so fighting is strongly banned. Make sure that we should always pay attention to the traffic on our way to school or home. Furthermore, if we meet some emergency, we must call for help from the police or our teachers. In a word, following these safety rules above can make us live in peace.

Yours,
Daming
